Chisholm Trail Cowboy Poetry Gathering Student Poetry Contest Entry Form

This publication release form allows the Chisholm Trail Heritage Center (CTHC) to use the student's entry, their name, picture, art, written work, verbal statements. This includes use in publications, such as anthologies, video and photographs of their submitted work, or that in connection with the actual event (video and photographs) and for the purpose of newspapers, TV, social media, and on our website and its connecting social media platforms. Published images may or may not identify the student, and program sponsors may continue to use the images, video and written works in subsequent years.

Students under the age of 18, a parent or legal guardian must sign this form. Your signature indicates this is your original work and not plagiarized from another source. Student and Parent/Guardian provides release to the Chisholm Trail Heritage Center for use of the entrant's name and all written work, images and other items as noted above. Personal information (home address, email and telephone numbers will not be released).

Purpose of program: Inspire writing among students and fulfill our mission: "To celebrate and perpetuate the history, art and culture of the Chisholm Trail, the American Cowboy and the American West."

Student and Parent/Guardian understand and agree: No compensation shall be paid; consent and release have been given without coercion or duress; photos, videos, writing, or student statements may be used in subsequent years.
