A fascinating new outdoor interpretive nature trail will identify native plants, forbes and trees indigenous to this area in the late 1860’s and earlier. Mark Galloway, Eagle Scout candidate, Troop 434 and the Noble Foundation’s Keith Klemment, are coordinating with the Chisholm Trail Heritage Center to complete phase 1 of this exhibit in 2011.

National Day of the Cowboy Celebration will begin with a free concert by Gary Pratt, on the evening of July 23. The following day will be a reunion of the stars of our Experience Theater film. Other fun activities include chuck wagon food, children’s activities an opportunity to bid on riding with the Heritage Herd on their drive to the Western Spirit Celebration in September and much more.

Marilyn Diggs BRAZIL

Exhibit July 16—August 15

Marilyn’s exhibit will feature original paintings that focus on the culture, religion, nature’s beauty and people of Brazil. A Brazilian artist, her art has been exhibited in France, Italy, Brazil and the United States. Also a freelance writer, she posses a keen eye for details and beauty around her. She is the daughter of Mr. & Mrs. Diggs Brown of Duncan.

Our education program, “Making History with the Arts” had a successful January 2010 to May 2010 with 2,363 students participating. Our Summer Scavenger Hunt is bringing in hundreds of young people to the Heritage Center.
